SUBJECT: Attempts to Interview Complainant [REDACTED]

ALLEGATION:

1. The complainant alleges that on 19 October 2011, at 1515 hours, at [REDACTED], he called for police service and unknown accused officers failed to respond.
2. It is alleged that the unknown accused officers failed to conduct a thorough investigation into the victim/complainant being stalked by [REDACTED]
3. It is alleged that the unknown accused officers stated, "This is Englewood, we have shootings and other things to worry about."
4. The complainant also alleges that on an unknown date, time, and location, the accused, Police Officer Craig LANDRUM failed to file a case report on his behalf. It is alleged that the accused officer failed to conduct a thorough investigation into the victim receiving threatening text messages.

The undersigned attempted to interview the complainant without success. On 29 December 2011, the undersigned contacted the complainant regarding his allegations. The complainant stated that he is in the process of requesting his phone records from his telephone company and will contact the undersigned to set up an appointment date for the interview when he received the records. The complainant explained that he called for police service which he did not receive over 15 times and the phone records will show this. A Certified Letter was sent to the complainant as a reminder to contact the undersigned when he received the phone records. On 6 January 2012, the complainant called the undersigned and stated that he is still waiting for the records and requested that his case not be closed at that time. On 19 January 2012, the complainant called the undersigned and said that he is still waiting for the records. At this time, the undersigned informed the complainant that she could not hold the case open indefinitely and the complainant said that he is expecting the records the following week. On 23 January 2012, the complainant called the undersigned and said that he received the records and set an interview date for 26 January 2012, at 1000 hours. On 26 January 2012, the complainant did not appear for the scheduled interview and he did not contact the undersigned to reschedule. As of 14 February 2012, the complainant has not contacted the undersigned. Based on the failure of the complainant to cooperate, this investigation will be terminated.
